Baton Rouge Bloody Mary Mix

1 (46 oz.) can tomato juice juice of 6 squeezed lemons
1 cup Heinz ketchup
5 to 6 dashes Tabasco
5 oz. Lea and Perrin's Worcestershire Sauce
1 tsp. black pepper
1 Tbsp. celery salt
vodka or gin to taste

Mix all ingredients in a pitcher. Pour over ice in glasses.
Garnish with celery. Serves 8.

Diet Sour

1½ oz. lemon juice (Louisiana Myer lemon if available)
1 pack Sweet 'N Low
1 oz. club soda
1½ oz. Jack Daniel's Bourbon or Johnny Walker Black Label Scotch

Mix all ingredients into a high ball glass. Makes 1 drink.

Old Fashioneds

1 fresh orange wedge
2 cherries
1 pkg. Sweet 'N Low bitters (Peychaud and/or Angostura)
1 jigger Jack Daniel's Bourbon
water

In a double old fashioned glass (amateurs can substitute any kind of glass), place orange wedge and cherries. Add one Sweet 'N Low package to the glass. Then add a generous amount (at least 6 drops) of bitters to the glass (here is a disagreement between Bill and Gary: Bill insists that you need two kinds of bitters: Peychaud and Angostura. Gary believes you only need the Angostura. Either one is delicious.) Mash the fruit/Sweet 'N Low/bitters mixture until the Sweet N' Low dissolves (the handle of a wooden spoon will do nicely, although we professionals have special tools for the task). Add Jack Daniel's and a splash of water, then stir. Add ice and start the roux!!!

Hallelujah Wine Punch

- 12 oz. can frozen lemonade concentrate
- 12 oz. can frozen orange juice concentrate
- ½ large can pineapple juice
- 1 bottle white wine
- 1 bottle ginger ale
- ½ Tbsp. almond extract

by Laura Hart
(Baton Rouge)
an associate practicing in the environmental area

In a large plastic container, add all of the above ingredients. Mix together and place in the freezer. The ingredients will begin to freeze into a slush a few hours after being placed in the freezer. The mixture will reach the best consistency after approximately 12 to 18 hours. During the time the mixture is in the freezer, it should be stirred every 4 to 6 hours to ensure that the flavors are evenly distributed. The result is a delicious slush that will be sure to please a wide variety of guests.

Mocha Party Punch

- ½ cup instant coffee
- 2 cups sugar
- 3 cups hot water
- 2 quarts whole milk
- 1 Tbsp. vanilla
- 1 (15½ oz.) can Hershey's Chocolate Syrup
- ½ gallon vanilla ice cream
- Cool Whip
- nutmeg

by Stephanie Cazenave, wife of Dean Cazenave (Baton Rouge)

commercial real estate and

In a large punch bowl, stir coffee, sugar and hot water together until dissolved; cool. Add milk, vanilla and chocolate syrup and stir. Refrigerate overnight. Stir well, as chocolate will settle to the bottom. When ready to serve, fold in ice cream. Top with Cool Whip and sprinkle nutmeg. Great for parties or showers.

Catherine's Whiskey Snowballs

- 46 oz. pineapple juice
- 32 oz. 7-Up
- 6 oz. frozen orange juice concentrate
- 1 small jar of cherries with juice
- 2 cups Jack Daniel's Black Label
- ¼ cup sugar

by Amy Berret

Mix sugar with whiskey. Pour all remaining ingredients into freezer container and cover. Freeze for at least 7–8 hours. Remove and stir to achieve a slush consistency. Cover any unused portion and return to freezer.

Subpoena Coladas

Each Fall, the Baton Rouge Bar Association hosts, “Belly Up With the Bar,” an outdoor cooking and drink-making contest and festival. Kean, Miller’s team won “Best Elixir” with the following:

Captain Morgan’s Parrot Bay Coconut Rum
Bacardi 151 Proof Rum
pineapple juice
Coco Lopez Cream of Coconut frozen strawberries ice

Other than the ingredients, there is no recipe. Trial and error is half the fun. Fill a blender with ice and add the coconut rum to fill about a third of the blender. Add the same amount of pineapple juice and a couple of spoonfuls of cream of coconut. Give it a good shot of 151 rum for a little kick. Blend well. Add frozen strawberries if you like. As you blend, add additional juice and/or rum until the drink is smooth. The secret is to use a powerful blender and to blend until they are very smooth, with no ice chunks. For tailgate parties, make the drinks ahead of time and freeze in zip-lock bags. The alcohol keeps the contents from freezing hard. The contents will defrost to the perfect consistency.

Classic Margarita

2 oz. of your favorite tequila
1 oz. freshly squeezed lime juice
1 oz. Cointreau

Combine all three ingredients in a shaker with ice.
Shake until cold. Strain over ice into a salt rimmed cocktail glass.
Finish it off with a fresh lime wedge.

Mix all ingredients in a large bowl, kneading with your hands much like you do cookie dough. The mixture will be crumbly at first, but keep mixing and it will smooth out. Roll into balls (like meatballs) and bake on an ungreased cookie sheet for 10–15 minutes at 425°. Enjoy!

- ¼ cup chopped green onions
- ½ tsp. garlic powder
- mayonnaise
- Tabasco Pepper Jelly (red)

Frank's Artichoke Squares

- 2 (6 oz.) jars marinated artichoke hearts
- 5 to 7 anchovy fillets
- 1 small onion
- 1 (2¼ oz.) can sliced black olives
- 1 (4 oz.) can sliced mushrooms (or ½ to ⅔ cup sliced fresh mushrooms)
- 4 large eggs
- ¼ cup Progresso Italian Breadcrumbs
- ½ tsp. Tony's Creole Seasoning
- ⅛ tsp. onion salt
- ⅛ tsp. garlic powder
- ⅛ tsp. Tabasco Sauce
- ⅛ tsp. oregano
- 1 Tbsp. parsley
- 8 oz. sharp cheddar cheese

Drain marinade from one jar of artichoke hearts into frying pan. Dissolve the anchovies in the oil over low heat. Add chopped onions and sauté until onions are limp but not brown (5 minutes). Add black olives and mushrooms. Cook until olives and mushrooms are tender and liquid is reduced but not dry. (Mushrooms and olives may be coarsely chopped.)

While the above is cooking, chop artichoke hearts and place in large bowl. Add onions, mushrooms and olives, and stir. Blend in beaten eggs. Be careful not to add eggs until hot ingredients have cooled. Add remaining ingredients and stir well. Place in 9" x 13" greased baking pan. Bake at 325° for 25–30 minutes. Cool and cut into squares. Serve warm or cool.

New York Potato K'nishes

Crust:

- 2 cups flour
- ½ tsp. baking powder
- ¼ tsp. salt
- 1 egg
- ¼ cup warm water
- ¼ cup vegetable oil

Filling:

- 6 potatoes, cooked and mashed
- 1 onion, minced
- 1 Tbsp. oil
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 3 tsp. salt
- Pepper to taste

Crust: Sift flour, baking powder, and salt into a bowl. Beat egg, oil, and water and add to the flour mixture. Knead lightly until dough is soft; it will be slightly oily but not sticky. Cover and set in a warm place for 1 hour.

Filling: Boil unpeeled potatoes in a pot of salted water until tender (about 20–25 minutes). Mash potatoes while still warm. Sauté onion in oil until golden or soft. Combine mashed potatoes, sautéed onion, two eggs, salt and pepper. Mix well.

Constructing the K'nish: Preheat oven to 375°. Divide dough in half and roll into a rectangle as thin as possible. Spread the filling along the long side of the dough, but not in the center, and roll the dough like a jelly roll. Cut the roll into one inch slices. Pull ends of the dough over the filling and tuck into the k'nish to form small cakes. Place on a well-greased baking sheet. Bake at 375° until brown (about 45 minutes). Best if eaten piping hot with some yellow mustard. Makes 1 dozen.

- 1 small bunch green onions, chopped
- ½ cup parsley, finely chopped
- 2 Tbsp. flour

- ½ lb. Swiss cheese, grated
- salt to taste
- red pepper to taste (or Cajun seasoning, like Tony Chachere's Creole Seasoning)
- 1 lb. white lump crab meat, cleaned to remove shell

John's Tex-Mex Salsa

- 1 medium white onion, quartered
- 2 cloves garlic
- 2 Serrano chilies or fresh jalapeño peppers
- 8 Roma tomatoes (about 1 pound)
- 2 Tbsp. fresh cilantro leaves, finely chopped
- 1 tsp. honey
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 Tbsp. fresh lime juice

Place onion, garlic and peppers (whole) in food processor and chop until fine. Add tomatoes and lightly chop in food processor. (Do not overdo it.) Remove contents from food processor and strain, saving juice. Chop cilantro by hand or cut with kitchen scissors until fine. Add honey, salt, lime, cilantro and mix in non-metallic bowl. Add back tomato juice to desired consistency. Chill in refrigerator for at least 30 minutes to allow the flavors to mingle. (Better if it is allowed to chill overnight.)

- 1 tsp. garlic powder

In a medium-sized stockpot, heat vegetable oil. Add onion and bell pepper. Cook until the onion is translucent, then add the garlic, stirring frequently until brown. (Be sure not to burn the garlic.) Add ½ cup of the water, the soups and the margarine. Add the cream and stir until all of the ingredients are mixed well. Then add corn and the rest of the water. Let simmer for about 2 to 3 minutes; add seasonings to taste. Add crawfish and let simmer 10 minutes on low setting. Add the green onion and turn off heat source. You must stir this soup frequently while it is cooking. Set the heat on medium to start. Be careful not to scorch the soup.

Smoked Turkey and Andouille Sausage Gumbo

Most gumbo recipes begin with the instruction, “First, you make a roux.”

Our version begins with the following instruction: “First, you make an Old Fashioned.”

For this gumbo, always start off by making and slowly sipping a Jack Daniel’s Old Fashioned (see recipe, page 10). By the time you have two, usually the gumbo is finished.

It works for us, anyway.

- 1 cup green onions, chopped
- 1 cup white onions, chopped
- 1 cup green bell peppers, chopped
- ¾ cup celery, chopped
- canola oil for frying
- 1 lb. andouille smoked sausage, cut up
- 1¼ to 1¾ cups all-purpose flour
- ½ tsp. salt
- ½ tsp. garlic powder
- ¼ tsp. ground red pepper
- ⅛ tsp. ground white pepper
- 7 cups of chicken stock (homemade or Swanson’s Chicken Broth, low sodium. Use 1 cup of water for each cup of Swanson’s)
- 2 tsp. minced garlic
- 2 to 3 lbs. smoked turkey breast, cut up
- hot cooked rice

Combine onions, bell pepper and celery in a bowl and set aside. In a black iron pot, add enough oil to coat the bottom of the pot and heat it to about medium high. Add the sausage and brown thoroughly. This will impart the seasonings and smoky flavor of the sausage to your roux. Remove the sausage pieces with a slotted strainer spoon and set aside. Add about 1¼ cup oil and turn the heat up to high. Slowly start stirring in the flour a little at a time, constantly stirring the flour and hot oil with a wooden spoon. We like a thick roux, so add enough flour until your roux is the consistency of Elmer’s Glue (you can always thin it later, but you can’t thicken it).

Begin adding the seasoning mix when you start the roux. Generally, one third should be added at that point, then another third when you add the vegetables. Reserve the final third until your gumbo is near complete.

We like to get the roux to the color of Baker’s dark chocolate. (This is the only time we argue over the gumbo – Gary likes it a little lighter – Bill likes it darker; Gary’s wife, Sandy, separates the boys and is the final arbiter.) When the roux gets about the color of a Hershey’s bar, lower the heat and continue cooking cautiously. Take the pot off the heat immediately when the roux is the right color and add the vegetables and stir them in. After a couple of minutes we start adding some stock and put the pot back on the fire.

Cook the vegetables on low heat with a little of the stock for about 5 minutes. In a separate pot, heat the stock, then add the roux a large spoonful at a time into the stock pot and stir until dissolved. Return the stock to a boil, reduce to a simmer and then add the andouille and the minced garlic. Simmer uncovered for 45 minutes, stirring every 10 minutes or so. When it is cooked and you are ready to serve, add the smoked turkey pieces so that they can soak up some of the seasonings for awhile before you serve the gumbo over hot rice. Serves 6.

Hazel's Seafood Gumbo

One of the Clark family treasures (to be honest, the only Clark family treasure) is this recipe from my mother, Hazel Corcoran Clark.

WARNING—if properly prepared, no other seafood gumbo will ever be acceptable.

- 1 lb. smoked sausage (Manda's mild)
- 1½ lbs. okra, cooked and chopped
- 2 cups oil
- 2 cups brown flour
- 2 cups celery, chopped
- 3 large onions, chopped
- 1 cup bell pepper, chopped
- 1 (16 oz.) can tomato sauce
- 8 qts. homemade chicken stock, boiled
- 10 lbs. leg quarters to make stock
- 2 to 3 lbs. crab meat
- 2 lbs. raw shrimp small
- 3 lbs. raw shrimp medium
- 2 tsp. salt
- 2 tsp. garlic powder
- 2 Tbsp. crab boil
- 2 tsp. thyme
- 8 bay leaves
- ½ cup parsley, finely chopped

Brown sausage and grind in food processor. Sauté cooked okra with a little oil and grind in food processor. (If using frozen okra, follow package directions for cooking, first.) Brown your roux, which is the oil and flour, until it is the color of brown sugar. Add celery, onions and bell peppers. Sauté until onions are clear. Add tomato sauce and cook for 20 minutes on medium until the tomato sauce turns a little brown. If the roux begins to stick, add some chicken stock. Add okra and sausage. Sauté until the ingredients are well mixed (about 10 minutes). Add chicken stock, crab meat, shrimp and remaining ingredients. Cook 30 minutes on low or until shrimp are cooked.

Microwave Roux

- 1 cup oil
- 1 cup flour

Mix oil and flour with a whisk in a 2 cup or bigger Pyrex measuring cup. Microwave for 1 minute then whisk. Repeat. Continue this process until the roux is the desired color. If you want a dark brown roux, reduce the cooking time to 30–40 seconds once the roux starts to get dark. It can and will burn. Total cooking time is approximately 8–10 minutes.

When done, pour into cooking pot and add vegetables.

Duck and Andouille Sausage Gumbo

- olive oil
- 2½ to 3 lb. duck, cut up
- ½ lb. andouille sausage, cut up
- 2 onions, chopped
- 3 Tbsp. garlic, minced
- 1 tomato, chopped
- ½ cup okra, chopped (optional)
- 5 Tbsp. flour
- water
- salt, pepper and parsley to taste
- 2 bay leaves
- cooked white rice

Brown duck and sausage in olive oil in a 4-quart black pot. Remove from oil and set aside. In the same oil, stir chopped onions, garlic and tomato until onions are brown. (If you want a thicker gumbo, add okra at this point.) Remove the onion, garlic and tomato mix and place on the side. Using the same olive oil, add flour to make a roux. Add more oil, if needed.

When roux is dark brown, begin adding warm water slowly to the roux, stirring constantly. Add about 2½ to 3 quarts of water. Bring mix to a boil. Reduce heat and stir in browned duck, sausage, cooked onions, garlic and tomato. Add salt, pepper, parsley to taste. Add bay leaves. Cook mixture uncovered on low for 1 to 2 hours. Serve with a few spoonfuls of rice in a bowl.

Mo's Beer Chili

- 2 lbs. ground round
(can substitute all or half ground turkey)
- 1 large onion
- 2 Ancho chili peppers
(or 2 jalapeños for a little hotter)
- 2 tablespoons cumin
- 2 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. pepper
- $\frac{1}{3}$ cup flour
- $\frac{2}{3}$ bottle of beer
(best is Corona, use a darker beer if you like a sweeter taste)
- 2 (28 oz.) cans of crushed tomatoes
- 2 cans kidney beans, black beans OR white beans OR some of each

Brown the ground meat at medium temperature in a black iron pot (no substitutions). Chop the onion and peppers very fine and cook with the meat for about 5 minutes. (Wash your hands with a cut lemon to get the pepper oils off before you touch your eyes - or other body parts!) Add the seasonings. Turn heat down to medium low. Add the flour and cook for at least 5 more minutes. Add the beer and cook for about 3 minutes. Add the tomatoes and beans and simmer on low for about an hour while you drink another beer (but it's good after about 15 minutes if you can't wait). Serve over rice and/or with cornbread. Baked Cushaw

This is an unusual recipe from the Old South—a vegetable dish that is as sweet as dessert. A cushaw is a variety of crookneck squash, available in July and August at the produce stands. A luscious dish.

Red Bell Pepper Risotto

5 red bell peppers
2 to 4 cups chicken stock OR 2 to 4 cans chicken broth
1 shallot
extra virgin olive oil
salt and freshly ground black pepper
2 cups Arborio rice, uncooked
 $\frac{3}{4}$ stick butter
Reggiano Parmesan cheese, finely grated

Roast the red bell peppers. Allow them to cool, peel off the skins, and discard all seeds. In a blender, add the roasted bell peppers and 8 to 12 ounces of the chicken stock and blend. Reserve the liquid. Finely mince the shallot. In a heavy 2-quart sauce pot, add olive oil to a depth of an eighth to a quarter of an inch. Heat to about medium. Add the minced shallot, salt and pepper, and stir until the shallot is translucent. Add the Arborio rice and toast it in the oil with the shallot. (This just means stir it around constantly for about 3 or 4 minutes.)

Add just enough of the red bell pepper liquid to cover the rice by about one-quarter of an inch and stir constantly until it is just about absorbed. Repeat this step until the Arborio rice is tender. (If you run out of the red bell pepper liquid and the rice is not yet tender, continue by using the chicken stock.) Add the butter and the finely grated Parmesan. (Here the Parmesan Reggiano is a must.) Test for seasoning. Serve with Stuffed Chicken Breasts, shown on page 57. (NOTE: The Risotto takes about 20 or so minutes to cook. The trick is never to stop stirring it until it is done.) Serves 8.

Bean Curd (Tofu) with Chili Sauce

16 oz. medium firm bean curd, cut into half inch cubes $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. ground beef (the leaner, the better) $\frac{1}{2}$ cup onion, finely chopped
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. minced garlic 1 to 2 tsp. chili sauce OR fresh pepper with seeds
2 to 3 Tbsp. olive or vegetable oil
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. sugar
3 Tbsp. soy sauce
2 tsp. cornstarch, dissolved in $\frac{1}{4}$ cup water salt and pepper

Heat oil in a pan and add onion and garlic. Stir-fry for one minute, then add beef. Stir-fry until beef is evenly browned. Add bean curd, chili sauce, sugar and soy sauce. Bring to a boil. Add the cornstarch mixture and simmer, stirring, until the sauce has thickened. Salt and pepper to taste. Serve hot. Serves 4.

fresh tuna steaks
2 Tbsp. olive or safflower oil
3 Tbsp. butter
1/3 cup thinly sliced green onions
2 Tbsp. finely chopped peeled fresh ginger
4 garlic cloves, chopped
8 ounces fresh shiitake mushrooms, stemmed, caps sliced
6 Tbsp. soy sauce
1 1/2 cups whipping cream
3 Tbsp. fresh lime juice
Lime wedges (optional)

Sauce:

Add butter, sliced green onions, ginger and chopped garlic to same skillet and sauté until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Mix in the mushrooms and soy sauce and simmer 30 seconds. Add whipping cream and simmer until the sauce lightly coats the back of your spoon, about 3 minutes. Last, stir in the lime juice.

Tuna Steaks:

The tuna can be pan seared or grilled. Either way, sprinkle both sides of the tuna steaks with salt and pepper. If you are pan searing the tuna, heat about 2 tablespoons of olive or safflower oil in a cast iron or other heavy skillet in the oven or on the range. Depending on how rare you want the tuna to be, cook the tuna steaks between 30 seconds and 2 minutes per side.

Serve with brown or wild rice and spoon the sauce onto the tuna and rice. Serves 4.

Natchitoches Meat Pies

Filling:

1 tsp. oil
1 lb. ground sirloin
1 lb. ground pork
1 bunch green onions, chopped
1 onion, chopped
1 pod garlic, minced
1 bell pepper, chopped
salt, black pepper and red pepper to taste
2 to 3 Tbsp. flour

Crust:

1 quart plain flour
2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. baking powder
½ cup + 2 Tbsp. shortening
2 eggs
1 cup milk

Filling Directions: Put oil in heavy pot and add meat and seasonings. Stir often as meat cooks. When meat is done but not dry, remove from heat. Stir in flour.

Crust Directions: Sift dry ingredients together. Cut in shortening. Beat eggs and add milk. Work gradually into dry ingredients until proper consistency to roll. Break into small pieces and roll very thin. Cut into rounds using a saucer as a guide or a 3" pastry cutter for cocktail-sized pies.

To Assemble: Place a large tablespoon of filling along edge and halfway in the center of round dough. Fold the other half of dough over, making edges meet. Firm edges with fork. Place pie in deep oil and fry til golden brown. Drain on paper towels and serve hot. Makes about 18–22 large pies. My mother, a life-long Natchitoches resident, says the secret is to season the filling until “you think you’ve ruined it.”

George's Roast Beef

beef roast (under 10 pounds)*
cooking oil
Adolph's plain meat tenderizer black pepper
garlic salt
salt
1 packet of powdered au jus mix

Preheat oven to 375° for 40 minutes. Lather the roast liberally with oil, then sprinkle with meat tenderizer. "Jugg" this into the meat with a fork. Sprinkle liberally with pepper and not so liberally with the salts. Place roast on rack in broiler/roaster pan. Start the roasting pan with about ⅓ inches of water in the bottom to keep the drippings from scorching and add later to au jus. Cook at 375° for 40 minutes and turn off the oven. DON'T open the oven for the ensuing two hours. Emphasis: Do not open the oven after the cooking starts. The roast will be perfect regardless of the size. Mix the au jus mix according to package directions. Slice meat thin and float in the au jus (after adding pan drippings) and serve with a baked potato. Try to slice across the grain of the meat. For subsequent meals, save au jus and thicken it with a little flour or corn starch. Slice the roast thin and heat it in the au jus - enough to cover 1 or 2 pieces of toast. Put the slices of roast on toast and cover with gravy.

*My personal preference is a flat cut boneless rump roast weighing approximately 3 pounds.

Panepinto Homemade Meatballs

- 2 lbs. ground beef
- 1 lb. ground pork
- 1½ large onions, finely chopped
- ½ large bell pepper, finely chopped
- 4 toes garlic, finely chopped
- 1 stalk celery, finely chopped
- 1 small bunch green onions, finely chopped
- 2 tsp. dried parsley
- ½ cup Parmesan cheese
- ¼ cup Romano cheese
- 1 tsp. red pepper
- ½ tsp. black pepper
- 3 tsp. salt
- 3 eggs
- ¼ cup Progresso Italian breadcrumbs
- ¼ cup milk

Mix above ingredients well. Using ice cream scoop, scoop onto a non-stick baking tray. Bake at 350° for 20 minutes (meatballs should begin to brown). These meatballs are great in spaghetti gravy or brown gravy. They should be cooked down in gravy for about 2–3 hours. For quick and easy spaghetti gravy, sauté one onion and two toes of garlic, add three (28 oz.) jars of Ragú Spaghetti Sauce (any kind), add 1½ jars of water and ⅓ cup of sugar. Cook on low to medium fire for about 2–3 hours. Serves 15.

Chicken a la Bum

(Named in honor of its creator,

- 1 cup vinegar
- 4 tsp. yellow prepared mustard
- 1 tsp. black pepper
- 1 tsp. paprika
- 2 tsp. Worcestershire
- 5 Tbsp. Tabasco sauce
- ½ tsp. sugar

Dissolve mustard into vinegar, then add remaining ingredients to create a sauce. Mix sauce with enough water to make a total of two cups liquid. This should be enough to cook one chicken. Adjust Tabasco to taste. You may want to go a little lighter on the Tabasco if you have guests from up North (anywhere above Alexandria). Brown one chicken (in parts) and place in large pot with sauce. Simmer until chicken is cooked through and fork-tender. Serve with iced tea and towels to wipe the sweat off of foreheads.

Gator (“Tiger Bait”) Sauce Piquante

In Louisiana, food is spiritual.

For example, no one will ever know how the LSU football team managed an upset over the then-No.1 ranked Florida Gators in 1997.

However, many of Kean, Miller’s Tiger faithful attribute the win to a pre-game tailgate party featuring this Gator Sauce Piquante. In keeping with LSU’s war chant, “Tiger Bait,” the gators were eaten up on, and off, the field that Saturday.

- 3 lbs. alligator tail meat
- ½ cup oil
- ½ cup flour
- 1 cup onions, chopped
- 1 cup celery, chopped
- ½ cup bell pepper, chopped
- ¼ cup garlic, diced
- 2 whole bay leaves
- ½ tsp. basil
- ½ tsp. thyme
- 1 cup tomatoes, diced
- ½ cup tomato sauce
- 2 Tbsp. jalapeños, diced
- 6 cups chicken broth
- 1 cup green onions, sliced
- ½ cup parsley, chopped
- salt and cracked black pepper to taste

Cut the alligator meat into pieces, render in a fry pan and set aside. If you don’t have alligator, do not worry. It “tastes like chicken”...so use chicken. You can use either a 5 pound stew chicken cut up or boneless chicken cut into pieces. With chicken, you can skip the rendering process and add the chicken raw.

In a large stew pot, heat the oil over medium heat. Add the flour and stir with a wire whisk until you have a medium brown roux. If you burn the roux (i.e. if any black specs appear), you have to start over. Therefore, constant stirring and medium heat are mandated. Once you have the roux, you are downhill. Add the onions, celery, bell pepper, garlic, bay leaves, basil and thyme. Sauté until vegetables wilt. Add the tomatoes, tomato sauce and jalapeños and cook for 5 minutes. Stir in the alligator. Add the broth, one cup at a time. Stir and incorporate each cup before adding more. Bring to a rolling boil, reduce heat and allow to simmer for 45 minutes. Add the green onions, parsley, salt and pepper and cook an additional 20 minutes. Serve over rice.

Overnight Egg Soufflé

8 slices day-old egg bread
1½ cup milk
¼ cup butter, melted
1 tsp. salt
dash of pepper
1 tsp. tarragon
1 tsp. dried mustard
¼ tsp. cayenne
6 eggs, well beaten
6 oz. cheddar cheese, shredded

Remove crusts from bread and cut into 1-inch cubes. Combine with milk, butter, salt, pepper, seasonings and eggs and beat well. Grease a 2-quart souffle dish. Layer bread-egg mixture and cheese, making 3 layers of each. Bread layer should be entirely covered with liquid when finished. Refrigerate overnight. Bake 1 hour at 325°.

Curry Chicken

8 chicken breasts
garlic powder
1 cup honey
¾ cup Grey Poupon mustard
1 tsp. soy sauce juice of ½ lemon
2½ Tbsp. curry powder

Dry chicken and sprinkle with garlic powder. Mix all other ingredients together in a mixing bowl. Place chicken in baking pan and pour sauce over chicken. Bake uncovered at 350° for about 50 minutes, basting with sauce often, or until chicken is tender. Remove from oven; cover with foil.

Spanish Pork

I married into a wonderful Spanish family. In many ways the Spanish customs and ways of life are similar to what we enjoy as Cajuns. They love their families and they love their food...and not necessarily in that order. Among my favorite dishes is the Spanish pork. This is served every Christmas Eve. I hope you enjoy.

1 (10 to 15 lb.) pork ham with bone
15 lemons
2 (8oz.) bottles minced garlic oregano
salt
pepper

First lay the pork in a large roasting pan with the fatty side up. Cut back a flap in the fat and stuff it with minced garlic. Fold the flap back down. Next, gently pack the remaining minced garlic all over the top and sides of the pork. Cut the lemons into halves. Squeeze the lemons over the pork and leave the spent rinds in the pot with the pork. Sprinkle the pork with salt, pepper and oregano to taste. Cover the pork with aluminum foil and place in an oven at 350°. Cook until the inside temperature of the pork reaches 180°. When done, serve with yellow rice and black beans.

Stuffed Chicken Breasts

This may sound more difficult than it really is.

Good served with Roasted Red Bell Pepper Risotto, shown on page 45 of this cookbook.

8 boneless, skinless chicken breasts 8 prosciutto ham slices (preferably prosciutto di parma) fontina, grated OR thinly sliced mozzarella cheese
salt
freshly ground black pepper paprika
dried basil
all purpose flour
seasoned breadcrumbs Reggiano Parmesan cheese, grated a 4 egg wash (beat-up the eggs and add a little milk, cream or water)
butter

Wash and dry chicken breasts and slice each of them just short of in half, length-wise, to form a pocket. Salt, pepper and paprika both sides and the pocket of each breast. Stuff one slice of the ham, folded around a generous portion of the grated fontina or thinly sliced mozzarella cheese, into the pocket of each breast and add a pinch or two of dried basil. Close the pockets and secure them with a wooden toothpick. Set in refrigerator for an hour or so.

Dredge each breast in seasoned all-purpose flour. (Season the flour generously with salt and pepper.) Coat the floured breasts in an egg wash. (It, too, should be seasoned with salt and pepper.) Next, coat each breast with a mixture of seasoned breadcrumbs, finely grated Parmesan cheese and lots of pepper. (3 parts crumbs to 1 part cheese is about right.) Refrigerate until ready to cook.

Add olive oil and a couple of tablespoons of butter to a large frying pan and bring the temperature to about medium-high. Brown both sides of each breast. Place breasts in a roasting pan with the oil and butter used for browning and bake at 400° for about 10 to 12 minutes. Serves 8.

Grilled Lamb Chops

This marinade also can be used with chicken, pork or rabbit.

5 sprigs fresh rosemary, chopped
6 large cloves garlic, minced
¼ tsp. black pepper (or to taste)
½ tsp. salt (or to taste)
1 Tbsp. balsamic vinegar
8 lamb chops

Mix all ingredients together and pour into zipper bag with lamb chops. Marinate at least 2 hours. Grill lamb chops on hot fire.

Pigs in a Noodle

(a/k/a Spaghetti with Pork Chops)

1 medium yellow onion, chopped
1 bunch green onions, chopped
garlic (at least 6 pods)
olive oil
3 small cans tomato sauce
2 small cans tomato paste
salt
pepper
garlic powder
onion powder
sugar
water
4 to 5 center cut pork chops angel hair pasta

Sauté all onions and garlic in a small amount of olive oil in a large pot. Add tomato sauce, tomato paste and a lot of water. Allow to reach a medium boil. Add salt, pepper, garlic powder and onion powder to taste. Add 6-8 tablespoons (this is a guess) of sugar. Keep on medium boil for about 4 hours, adding water from time to time. Then lightly brown pork chops on both sides and add to the sauce. Reduce fire and add water for the last time. Allow dish to cook to desired thickness. Then reduce heat and continue thickening until ready to eat. (Total cooking time for the dish should be no less than six hours.)

Boil angel hair pasta. Pour sauce over cooked pasta. Your dish will be a success if (1) the pork chops fall off the bone and you don't need a knife to cut them; and (2) the sugar has cut the bitterness of the tomato paste while not making the sauce taste too sweet. Serves 4-6. Enjoy!

Louisiana Jambalaya

- ½ lb. smoked sausage
- 1 large onion (or 2 medium)
- 2 ribs celery
- 1 small bell pepper
- 1 lb. chicken breasts and/or pork, cut up
- ¼ cup vegetable oil
- ¼ cup flour
- 1 can diced tomatoes OR
Rotel with green chilies (if you like it spicy)
- 3 bay leaves
- 4½ cups water or chicken broth
- salt, pepper, Tony's seasonings to taste
- 2 cups uncooked rice, small or medium grain

Slice sausage into ¼ inch rounds and brown in a large pot. Remove sausage from pot and set aside. Place chicken or pork in same pot. Stir until outside of meat has been seared well. Dice onion, celery and bell pepper. Add diced vegetables and sauté until onions are translucent. (About 10 minutes.) While vegetables cook, make your roux in a microwave. That's right—we are making it in the microwave—little mess, little smell and just as good. In a Pyrex measuring cup, mix flour and oil (may be lumpy). Cook on high for 3 minutes. Remove and stir—it should be beige at this point. Keep cooking and stirring at 30 second intervals, then at 15 second intervals until it is dark brown. Add roux to pot with meat and vegetables, stirring well until mixed. Stir in tomatoes and bay leaves. Then add water or broth and bring to a boil. Add seasonings and cook on high heat for 15 minutes. Add sausage and rice and bring to a boil again while stirring. Cover with a tight fitting lid and cook on low heat for 25 minutes. DO NOT LIFT THE LID or the rice may be undercooked. When done, stir once with a large spoon and it's ready. Serves 8.

Chicken-Broccoli-Curry Casserole

(sounds weird, but it is really good!)

- 2–3 cups chopped cooked chicken breasts (between 2-4 chicken breasts, depending on size)
- 2–3 cups chopped cooked broccoli (do not overcook – steam or microwave, can use frozen)
- 1 can cream of chicken soup
(Campbell's Healthy Request works well)
- $\frac{2}{3}$ cups mayonnaise
(reduced fat works; fat-free does not)
- $\frac{1}{3}$ cup evaporated milk
- $\frac{3}{4}$ cups grated cheddar cheese
(reduced fat works; fat-free does not)
- 2 tsp. curry powder
- 3–4 slices French bread
melted butter

Preheat oven to 350°. Spread chopped chicken and broccoli in a small rectangular casserole dish. Mix soup through curry powder to make a sauce and pour over the chicken and broccoli. Bake for 25 minutes. While casserole is baking, cube the bread and place on a cookie sheet. Brush with small amount of melted butter and toast to make buttered croutons. Top casserole with croutons and then bake for another 5–10 minutes.

This recipe serves 4 and can easily be doubled to make a 9 x13 casserole.

1 lb. fresh mushrooms, chopped
½ stick butter
1 pint fresh oysters, drained and quartered liquid from oysters
½ to 1 cup fresh breadcrumbs
1 egg beaten
½ cup finely chopped fresh parsley
salt, black pepper and red pepper to taste
5 to 6 lb. filet mignon (whole strip); trimmed

Basting Sauce:

1 stick butter, melted
¼ cup hot English mustard
½ cup brandy

Sauté green onions and mushrooms in butter about 5 minutes. Add oysters, cook 5 minutes more; remove from heat and add breadcrumbs to make a moist dressing. Use a little oyster liquid if it needs to be moistened more. Add egg, parsley, salt and pepper to taste. Cut a deep slit lengthwise into the tenderloin filet. Stuff the dressing into the slit and tie with string. Cook in a 450° pre-heated oven for 20–25 minutes, depending on the size. Baste often. Remove from oven and cover loosely with aluminum foil for about 15 minutes to let the juices repose. Slice and serve. Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

- $\frac{2}{3}$ cup olive oil
- salt and freshly ground pepper to taste
- 2 Tbsp. herbs, finely chopped

Make a marinade by placing the balsamic vinegar in a bowl and then whisking in the olive oil. Once combined, add the herbs. (A combination of thyme, oregano and basil works well.) Pavlova

This is a very light dessert and is like eating a slice of homemade marshmallow with toppings. It is very good and must be healthy since there is no fat in it. Very colorful for Christmas.

Meringue:

- 3 egg whites
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- dash of salt
- 1 tsp. vanilla (optional)

Topping:

- 1 (16 oz.) container whipped cream
- kiwi fruit, sliced
- strawberries, sliced (Hence the nice Christmas accents!)

In a medium bowl, add dash of salt to egg whites. Beat egg whites until stiff. Gradually add sugar, continuing to beat the egg whites until stiff peaks form. (The vanilla may be added with the sugar, if desired.) Spread the meringue in a 9-inch springform baking pan which has been sprayed with a non-stick spray. Bake at 200° for one hour. Turn off the oven and let the meringue dry in the oven for another 1½ to 2 hours. Remove from the oven, let cool. Remove the meringue from the baking pan and place on a serving plate.

Cover the baked meringue with lots of whipped cream and arrange the slices of strawberries and kiwis on top. The pavlova may be served immediately or covered and refrigerated until ready to serve. Serves 6-8.

Chocolate Chip Cake

- 1 cup milk

Preheat oven to 350°. Mix first 5 ingredients with electric blender. Stir in chocolate ingredients. Pour into a greased or sprayed Bundt pan. Bake 50-60 minutes. Cool, remove from pan, and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Bread Pudding and Whiskey Sauce

- 1 cup sugar
- 8 Tbsp. butter, softened
- 5 eggs, beaten
- 1 pint heavy cream
- dash of cinnamon
- 1 Tbsp. vanilla extract
- 12 slices, 1 inch thick, of stale French bread

Preheat oven to 350°. In large bowl, cream together sugar and butter. Add eggs, cream, cinnamon and vanilla, mixing well (we don't add raisins although it is an option). Pour into a 9-inch square pan, 1¾ inches deep.

Arrange bread slices flat in the egg mixture and push the bread down into the egg mix. Let stand for 5 minutes to soak up some of the liquid. Turn bread slices over and let stand for 10 minutes longer. Then, push bread down again so that most of it is covered by the egg mixture. Do not break the bread apart when you do this.

Set the pan in a larger pan filled with water to ½ inch from the top. Cover with aluminum foil. Bake for 45 to 50 minutes, uncovering pudding for the last 10 minutes to brown the top. When done, the custard should still be soft, not firm.

The Whiskey Sauce:

- 1 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 stick real butter
- ¼ cup Jack Daniel's

Melt butter and sugar in a double boiler until the sugar dissolves. It will become creamy and have the consistency of cake batter. Remove from the heat. Quickly whisk in one egg. (Note: If you don't do this quickly, you'll wind up with very sweet scrambled eggs. They're not bad, but certainly don't qualify as sauce). Then, add the whiskey and remove from heat. To serve, spoon the pudding onto dessert plates and pass the sauce separately in a gravy boat. This can be prepared ahead and heated prior to serving.

Pecan Cookies

- 1 cup unsalted butter, softened
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract
- about 2 cups confectioners' sugar
- 2¼ cups all-purpose flour
- 1 cup pecans, finely chopped

Preheat oven to 350°. Lightly grease 2 baking sheets (or use non-stick sheets). With a mixer, combine the butter and vanilla. Add ½ cup of the sugar, then slowly add the flour and pecans and mix just until combined. Roll the dough into balls about ¾-inch in diameter, and arrange them on the baking sheets. Bake 15 to 20 minutes, until golden brown. Meanwhile, spread the remaining confectioners' sugar out on a plate. When the cookies are done, remove from the oven, let cool 3 to 5 minutes. Fill a paper lunch bag with the remaining sugar, and drop a few cookies in to get coated. Let the powered cookies cool completely before sealing in a container. This simple recipe makes about 4 dozen small cookies.

Pecan Pralines

- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 cup white sugar
- ½ cup evaporated milk
- 2 Tbsp. butter
- 1 cup pecan halves
- ¼ tsp. vanilla

Combine the sugar and milk and bring to a boil, stirring occasionally. Add the butter, pecans and vanilla and cook until the syrup reaches the “soft ball stage” (238°). The “soft ball stage” is when a little of the mixture forms a soft ball when dropped in cold water. Cool without disturbing, then beat until somewhat thickened, but not until it loses its gloss. Drop by tablespoon onto a well-greased, flat surface (a piece of marble is best) or wax paper. The candy will flatten out into large cakes. This will make 20 pralines.
